

Gina Hall

206-854-9088 * Seattle, WA * gina.m.hall@comcast.net * LinkedIn

Gina Hall is a senior nonprofit executive with 25+ years' experience developing and executing business strategies. Acknowledged for confidently creating and leading innovative programs, profit centers, and initiatives; ensuring external stakeholders and all levels of the organization are aligned with project strategies, measures, and outcomes. Skilled in raising significant funds. And recognized for meeting challenges with an authentic visionary approach that inspires team members, volunteers, and direct reports to exceed goals and meet objectives.

Currently, Gina is the Chief Executive Officer of Uplift Northwest, a legacy non-profit organization founded over 100 years ago located in the Belltown neighborhood of Seattle Washington. Highly effective and results driven Non-Profit Executive with extensive experience developing and executing fundraising and business strategies.

Gina was Vice President of Donor and Community Relations at Seattle Goodwill, a $100M+ international retail and workforce development non-profit where she was responsible for all aspects of contributed revenue, including government, corporate, community-based organizations, and individuals. She was a member of the executive leadership team partnering with the CEO, CFO, VP Operations, VP Human Resources, VP Programs.

Gina begin her career in local municipal government at the City of Tukwila, WA where she spent 10 years with increasing responsibility. She provided research and supportive services to the Public Safety Department, Parks, and Recreation in addition to the Department of Community Development.

She is currently the Immediate past Chair of the board for the Urban League of Metropolitan Seattle, a board member of the Downtown Seattle Association, board member of Belltown United; A member of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, Board Chair for Seattle Rotary #4 and is affiliated with numerous professional and industry associations.

Gina attended, Highline Community College, University of Phoenix, and Seattle University where she received her graduate certificate in Executive Leadership